

With the state of conditions of power lines, Broad band over power lines would be a disaster. This is not only going to affect Amatuer Radio, but Public services and just about any other type of communications. If this is to pass, the effects from this would be terrible for communications in general.